About Kansas City, Missouri

Located just 250 miles (400 km) from the geographic center of the US, Kansas City calls itself "The Heart of America." It is the largest metropolitan area in the state of Missouri, with a population of over two million. Although Kansas City has more boulevards than Paris and more fountains than any city but Rome, it is better known for its jazz and blues music and for its world-famous barbecue.

Downtown Kansas City has been named one of America's Best Downtowns by Forbes Magazine. Thanks to upscale shopping and entertainment, a new performing arts complex, picturesque fountains, a walkable city center and great barbecue restaurants, it's easy to see why!

Just 10 minutes from downtown is the small city of Parkville, home to Park University. Overlooking the Missouri River, the historic community is known for its boutique shops, antique stores, scenic parks, safe, quiet neighborhoods—and of course Park University.

About LCI Kansas City

Our language center in Kansas City is located in Parkville on the beautiful campus of Park University.

Park University is a small, suburban school with fewer than 2,000 students. The student-faculty ratio is 12:1, and more than 80 percent of classes have fewer than 20 students. Park has also been ranked one of the country's most affordable private colleges.

LCI students have access to all campus resources including the university library, student residences, a fitness center, dining services and a variety of student clubs, organizations and recreational activities.
