About Houston

With more than two million residents, Houston is the fourth-largest city in the US. Houston combines a cosmopolitan atmosphere with Southern charm, offering something for everyone. The city is home to world-class dining and shopping, vibrant arts and culture, a thriving economy, five professional sports teams, 14 institutions of higher learning and NASA's Johnson Space Center.

Houston has pleasant year-round temperatures and more parkland than any other Top 10 US city. It is located less than 50 miles from the coast, making the beach just a day-trip away. It's no surprise that Forbes Magazine named Houston one of America's Coolest Cities in 2014!

Houston's Bush Intercontinental Airport has direct flights from cities all over the world, including:

- Beijing
- Buenos Aires

About LCI Houston

Our language center in Houston is located in the historic neighborhood of Montrose, in the famous Museum District. The school offers 8 group and 5 private classrooms, a computer room, a kitchen and a lovely outdoor patio filled with flowers and trees. One of the most pedestrian-friendly neighborhoods in Houston, Montrose has tree-shaded streets, international restaurants and vintage shops. And just steps away from our front door is the entrance to St. Thomas University.

Montrose is part of the greater Museum District, an association of museums, galleries and cultural centers dedicated to promoting local arts and culture. The Museum District is home to 19 museums and is served by four stops on the METRORail, Houston's light rail line. Within 3-5 blocks of LCI are stops for several buses, two of which go downtown and to the light rail a mile away.
